

Mark N. Tsiamas
CPA, CVA
PRINCIPAL

Mark is a Principal at Simione Healthcare Consultants with over 20 year of home health care and hospice experience.

Mark has developed due diligence and valuation programs for all types of home health care businesses. He has also worked with many clients in acquisitions and dispositions of home health care businesses, developing financial models for clients' home care businesses and programs, creating and maintaining informational databases using home health and hospice cost report data as well as performing process reviews of financial support departments within home care and hospice provider organizations. Mark also has many years experience in interim financial management for a large hospital based and proprietary owned home care providers.

Mark is a graduate of Pace University – Lubin School of Business with a BBA in Accounting and Taxation and he is a Certified Public Accountant as well as a Certified Valuation Analyst.

Mark is a member of National Association for Home Care and Hospice, Home Care & Hospice Financial Managers Association, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts (NACVA) and the New York State Society of CPAs.

Mark has also conducted various workshops on alternative Home Care business structures, Medicare reimbursement issues, cost reports, cost analyses of home care programs and telehealth programs and authored articles including "Valuing A Home Care Business", Infusion Magazine and "Telehealthcare: Cost to Deliver is the Bottom Line" from Caring Magazine.